According to the Keuzegids Universiteiten, the university offers high quality education and a wide range of degree programmes of which some are taught at Nijmegen School of Management (NSM), one of the faculties of Radboud University. NSM combines academic research and education to create a challenging curriculum in the fields of public administration, business administration, economics, human geography, environment and society studies, spatial planning and political science. For years the educational curriculum at NSM has been praised for the attention it pays to quality, the supervision of its students, the accessibility of its lectures and its small-scale teaching. Nijmegen School of Management (NSM)
The city of Nijmegen

Radboud University is located in the city of Nijmegen, you might know it from the International Four Days’ Marches held every summer. You might also know it for its vibrant student life, because Nijmegen is a city that caters well to students’ needs. The city of Nijmegen was founded by the Romans over two-thousand years ago. Although you will not find much remaining from those times, there are still picturesque medieval buildings in the city centre. Nowadays, Nijmegen has about 170,000 inhabitants, of which 25 per cent are students. They are the basis for a lively city-centre, which has a lot to offer almost 24 hours a day. Nijmegen, the city with the highest number of terraces per inhabitant of all cities in the Netherlands, has a large variety of shops, restaurants and bars, which cater to your needs and almost all have student discounts. In addition, Nijmegen has a large offer in cultural life, with cinemas, art houses, museums, and festivals around the corner. Finally, Nijmegen is a very foreigner-friendly city with most of the population speaking both Dutch and English.
Eight reasons to study in Nijmegen

1. A recent study showed that students named Nijmegen the safest city to live and study in the Netherlands.

2. Nijmegen boasts one of the best Arthouse Cinemas in the Netherlands and has a large variety of art and music festivals.

3. Nijmegen is very accessible and in close vicinity to various international airports and only a 1,5 hour train ride away from Amsterdam.

4. Nijmegen is a very sporty city offering a range of tournaments, runs and other in- and outdoor sporting activities.

5. Nijmegen has the highest density of sidewalk terraces in the Netherlands.

6. In summertime Nijmegen is a very vibrant city, hosting among others the world’s largest walking event ‘the Four Days’ Marches’, which includes a number of large festivities.

7. Nijmegen has rich student life in which every student is able to call it their home. There are student organisations and study associations for various student groups, among which international students.

8. Nijmegen is a very cozy city, often said to be more like a ‘big village’ than the bustling town of 170.000 inhabitants it is. Even so, Nijmegen managed to keep a friendly and open atmosphere.
Housing, budget and the IMO

The Radboud University has an online application procedure for housing, which students have to complete. The International Office (IO) will help students in their search for a room. For student complexes as well as private housing, the number of vacancies is extremely limited, and rooms are hard to find. Students will receive a voucher code by email. By entering this voucher code on the online booking system Book your Room, you can see which rooms are available and choose the one that you prefer. This voucher code is valid for one week only, so you will have to book a room within that week. When finalising your booking, you will be asked to make the first payment (rent of first two months, registration and administration fee).
Rooms mediated by the IO will meet the following minimum specifications

1. The room will be furnished, and contains at least a bed (including mattress, excluding blanket/eiderdown and pillow and bed linen), cupboard, desk and chair.

2. Shared facilities are at least a kitchen, shower/bathroom and toilet.

3. Access to internet (apart from a few exceptions).

4. Distance to the Radboud University Campus is a maximum of 30 minutes travel time by bike one-way.

5. A) The rent (inclusive of energy and water) for rooms in student complexes owned by the SSH&, a student housing corporation, is according the local market value, with a maximum of €2,200 per semester / €4,400 per academic year.

   B) The rent for rooms (inclusive of energy, water, and internet) in the private sector is according the local market value and may vary from €1,650 to €2,750 euro per semester / €3,300 to €5,500 per academic year.

Budget

The average monthly budget for a student is €900. However, the exact budget depends on several factors. The average budget can be divided into accommodation, food and living expenses, tuition fee, study books and literature, insurance, and contingencies.

NSM’s International Mobility Office

The International Mobility Office (IMO) team consists of two coordinators. Ms. Beate Durlinger and Ms. Nataša Bracko coordinate procedures for the international exchange students. Students can contact the staff members of IMO for practical issues, but also when they need help finding their way around campus, the city of Nijmegen and adjusting to the Netherlands and the Dutch.

The staff members of IMO can refer students to the right person or institution if they do not know whom or where to turn to with their questions.
