

SICHA THUBDIMPHUN

Lecturer, Department of Economics, Thammasat University

sicha@econ.tu.ac.th

EXPERIENCE : Faculty of Economics, Thammasat University, 2001 – present, Lecturer
Investment Banking Department, Bangkok Bank Plc., 2000, Investment banker

EDUCATION: PhD in Economics, University of Essex, UK
(January 2011)

Master of Arts in Economics (English Language Program), Thammasat University, THAILAND (June 2000)

GPA: 3.93/4.0

Bachelor of Business Administration, Chulalongkorn University, THAILAND
(March 1997)

Major: Banking and Finance GPA: 3.29/4.0 (Second Class Honours)

AWARDS

& SCHOLARSHIPS: Best Paper Award, SIBR Conference, Bangkok Thailand, 2012

Thammasat University Scholarships 2006 – 2010

Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of Essex 2008/2009

Sanwa Bank Foundation (Japan) Scholarship 1997 -1998

Certificate of Honours: for the highest grade point average in the 2nd semester 1996
Awarded by The Jaiyot-Sombut Foundation, Commerce and Accountancy Faculty
Chulalongkorn University, 1996

RESEARCH AND PUBLICATION :

Anya Khunthavit, Vimut Vanitcharernthum, Sicha Thubdimphun. “Financial Assets in Thailand”. (in Thai) The second chapter in “Thai Financial Market”, the Stock Exchange of Thailand (in Thai), 1st Edition 2001 and 2nd Edition 2002

Sicha Thubdimphun, “Thai Banks Mergers” (in English), Economic Monitor, December 2001

Sicha Thubdimphun, “Fundamental of Microeconomics in Banking for undergraduate course”, 2003. The research was awarded funding by faculty of economics, Thammasat University.

Nittinun W., Orawan R., Euamporn T., Pawin S. and Sicha T. “Impacts of EU Enlargement on Thai economy”(in Thai), 2004, The research was awarded funding by Thailand Research Fund.